2. The name of the senior officer who gave that advice, and their hierarchical relationship to the Director and Assistant Director whose conduct has led to a public-interest report from the City Council's external auditors

This information is not held by the council in a recorded form.

3. The documented procedure that was followed when it was decided to remove footage of the speaker from the webcast

Please see answer to question 1.

4. The identity of those who took that decision

This information is not held by the council in a recorded form.

5. How the speaker had breached any of the categories outlined above by the council's spokesperson

This information is not held by the council in a recorded form.

6. All unedited recorded information for webcasting from all cameras and other recording devices in the council chamber

The council is only able to provide copies of information it holds and this is now available on the council's website, which can be accessed through the following link.

<https://www.york.gov.uk/>

7. All communications between staff, councillors, and other bodies including Pilot Theatre (who record the webcasts) concerning the removal of the footage

This information is not held by the council in a recorded form.
