
Organisations in York offering Care in your own home

Home Care can help you retain independence and skills, enabling you to continue living in your own home with support.

The list shows organisations in York that provide Care in your own home. Inclusion in the leaflet does not constitute endorsement by City of York Council.

- The type of care each organisation specialises in is shown to assist you in identifying which ones you wish to contact .This information is shown as it appears on the Care Quality Commission (CQC) website, however it is recommended you speak with the organisation directly to discuss your individual requirements .
- Domestic help is included in the types of care offered, but is not required to be registered with CQC.
- The Care Quality Commission inspects all home care providers to ensure that they have reached required national standards.
- You can find out more about the Care Quality Commission at www.cqc.org.uk . You can also use the same link to find the latest inspection report for organisations you may be considering, which you are advised to have a look through.

The tables below show the codes used in each organisations entry in the leaflet.
