

Introduction

PLEASE GIVE US YOUR FEEDBACK

City of York Council is keen for residents, businesses, interest groups and other stakeholders to express their views and ideas to help guide future development proposals for the York Central site.

We would like to hear your comments and feedback on the issues presented in the consultation document “York Central: Seeking your views to guide development”. The feedback obtained will inform the next stage, which is the creation of York Central Planning Framework.

We welcome your responses during a four-week consultation which starts on Monday 18 January 2016 and finishes on Monday 15 February 2016.

You can meet the team in person at one of our staffed events:

- Holgate & Micklegate Joint Ward Committee: St Paul’s Church Holgate, Tuesday 19 January 6pm – 8pm
- West Offices: Station Rise, Thursday 21 January 10am - 4pm
- National Railway Museum: Saturday 30 January 10am – 4pm
- York Railway Station: Wednesday 3 February 4pm – 7pm

Please return responses by 15 February 2016 via:

- Online questionnaire: www.york.gov.uk/consultations
- Email: yorkcentral@york.gov.uk
- Post: York Central Consultation, City of York Council, York, YO1 7ZZ
- Telephone: 01904 551550

Printed copies of the consultation questionnaire are available at West Offices, Hazel Court and all York Libraries and Explore Centres. A public exhibition can be viewed at West Offices throughout the consultation period. A large font printed version of the questionnaire is available upon request. If you would like some support to respond or attend any of the events then please get in touch via the methods above.
